FOREWORD

This book is a digest in four Volumes comprising the individual ancestries of my four grandparents:

VOL. I.	VOL. II.	VOL. III.	VOL. IV.
GEORGE II LANGFORD—CHLOE SWEETING.	DANL. ALEX. ROBERTSON—JULIA A. BELL.
B. 1795 D. 1863	B. 1794 D. 1888	B. 1812 D. 1895	B. 1826 D. 1910

This is only a brief summary. Most of the ancestral lines are omitted.

The data contained herein is drawn from many sources. Only the more important references are given.

In this compilation I have been assisted by information accumulated over a long period of time by Mrs. Charles L. Alden, genealogist, my first cousin, whose maiden name was Mary Langford Taylor. The results of her researches form a considerable part of each of Volumes I, II and IV. These are now corrected and extended. There is also additional new matter, the most important of which is:

VOL. I.

Corrected ancestry of NORTHRUP LANGFORD 1724-1780.

VOL. II.

Lines of BILLING and DRAKE carried back into England.

VOL. III.

ALL Scottish ancestry; almost a complete blank heretofore.

VOL. IV.

Lines of BRIGHAM and CROSBY carried back into England.

George Langford.

Sept. 1936.

Rec'd Dec 20-1978

Each Volume comprises a series of Charts, arranged in alphabetical order.

Each Chart represents a family. Each generation includes not only our ancestor but also brothers and sisters. Our ancestors' names are in capital letters, with the exception of some of the names on pages 93, 94 and 95 of Vol. III.

Attention is called to the "KEY SHEETS", which mark the steps of continued ancestry. If the key connections are not proved, that which follows each of them, should be discarded from this ancestry. I have omitted much that appears doubtful. That which remains herein appears to be satisfactorily proved except in a few instances noted. It must be borne in mind however that the most ancient of some of the old family lines (Vol. III) are difficult to prove or disprove, because of the lack of documentary evidence.

In Volumes I, II and III, I have traced every American ancestor as far back in America as I can. Some of them, BILLING and DRAKE of Vol. II extend into England, but no attempt is made to chart the related English and European families.

Vol. III ancestry is all Scotch, although there are many related English and European families, uncharted. Light or dark arrows indicate known connecting lines. A name in parenthesis indicates the connecting line shown on another chart bearing that name.

VOLUME I.

GEORGE II LANGFORD 1795-1863

OF WESTMORELAND AND LITICA, NEW YORK.

The accepted ancestry has been;
JOHN¹ (of Salem); THOMAS²; JOHN³ (of Newport, R.I. mar. Alida); NORTHRUP⁴ (of Northampton, Mass.); GEORGE I⁵; GEORGE II⁶.

BUT the above ancestry of NORTHRUP⁴ is herein corrected to;
THOMAS I¹; THOMAS II²; THOMAS III³; (Holdebee) NORTHRUP⁴.

The Vital Records of Rhode Island transcribed by Arnold imply that;
Thomas Sanford mar. May 25, 1724 Hannah Northup, dau. of Joseph.

But the actual records at North Kingstown, R.I. read differently;
THOMAS LANKFORD mar. May 25, 1724 Hannah Northup, dau. of Joseph.
There was an error in Arnold's transcription.

Records of Rhode Island;

Thomas and Hannah had a son Holdebe Langford b. Sept. 24, 1724.

Records of Connecticut;

Born Dec. 2, 1750 at Saybrook, Conn., Mary, dau. of Holdebe Langford and Mary.

Baptized 1757 at Westbrook, Conn., Rachel, dau. of Holdebe Langford.

Records of Dutchess Co., New York;

Thomas Langford and his son Holdebe living there Jan. 5, 1756.

Holdebe Langford paid taxes there June 1759-June 1763 but not after.

Records of Northampton, Mass;

Northrup Langford with wife Mary and about 7 children first appeared in Northampton 1765.

Mary the oldest child mar. Mch. 17, 1772 Lucius Knight.

Hannah the second child mar. Selah Clarke Jr.

Rachel another child died Dec. 30, 1780 aged 23.

Northrup the father died Dec. 1780 aged 55.

After Northrup Langford's death in 1780, his widow Mary mar.
2nd Deacon Noah Weld of Guilford, Vermont.

In our family records, George II Langford refers to a John Langford Langford of Providence, R.I. (mar Ann or Nancy) as "Cousin," a relationship, which after much study, I have found possible only on one condition, namely that Northrup Langford d. 1780 aged 55 and Holdebe Langford b.
1724 were one and the same person.

From the study and comparison of the records of Northrup and Holdebee Langford and of the wife and children of each, only one conclusion is possible:

Holdebee Langford b. 1724 East Greenwich, R.I.; and Northrup Langford d.
1780 Northampton, Mass. were one and the same person.

Clearing up of Northrup Langford's ancestry has added the allied family lines of Northrup, Smith, Geteardy and Sweet — all of Rhode Island.

The will of Martha Lyon of Roxbury, Mass. identifies the wife of John Griggs Jr. thereby adding the allied family lines of Cass and Philbrick.

The following are not yet identified:

1. Mary — d. June 2, 1655, wife of THOMAS BROWN of Newbury, Mass. b. 1606-7, d. 1689.
2. Mary Johnson d. Apr. 14, 1679 wife of FRANCIS BROWN of Newbury, Mass. b. 1633, d. 1690-1.
3. Mary — d. Apr. 2, 1657 1st wife of WM. EDMUNDS of Lynn, Mass. b. 1610, d. 1693.
4. Mary — 2nd wife of John EDMUNDS of Lynn, Mass. d. Mch. - Apr. 1702.
5. Hannah Waldron, 2nd wife of JOHN ELLIOTT of Beverly, Mass. b. Sept. 10, 1693, d. 1767.
6. Mary — d. Sept. 25, 1679 1st wife of THOMAS GRIGGS of Roxbury, Mass. d. May 23, 1646.
7. 1st wife of THOS. I. LANGFORD of Rh. Id. living 1635.
8. Comfort — d. 1699, 1st wife of THOS. II. LANGFORD of Newport & E. Greenwich, Rh. Id. d. 1709.
9. Mary — m. 1st 1749-50, m. 2nd Deacon Weld of Guilford, Vt, wife of HOLDEBEE NORTHROP
LANGFORD of Northampton, Mass. d. Dec. 1780 aged 55.
10. Mary — d. Sept. 10, 1673 wife of WM. PATTEN of Cambridge, Mass. d. Dec. 10, 1668.
11. Elizabeth — wife of THOS. PHILBRICK of Hampton, N.H. d. 1667.
12. Margaret — living 1678, wife of JOHN SMITH Sr. of Providence, Rh. Id. living 1673.
13. Mary — d. 1681 wife of JOHN SWEET of Salem, Mass. d. 1639.

Notes

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present and for the development of a sound policy for the future.

2. The second part of the paper discusses the role of the government in the development of the United States. It is argued that the government has played a crucial role in the development of the country, and that its actions have been guided by a clear sense of purpose and direction.

3. The third part of the paper discusses the role of the individual in the development of the United States. It is argued that the individual has played a crucial role in the development of the country, and that his actions have been guided by a clear sense of purpose and direction.

4. The fourth part of the paper discusses the role of the community in the development of the United States. It is argued that the community has played a crucial role in the development of the country, and that its actions have been guided by a clear sense of purpose and direction.

5. The fifth part of the paper discusses the role of the nation in the development of the United States. It is argued that the nation has played a crucial role in the development of the country, and that its actions have been guided by a clear sense of purpose and direction.

* AUGUSTINE G. LANGFORD.
 Lived in Utica, N.Y. and was educated there. In 1856 with brother Nathaniel he removed to St. Paul, Minn. to engage in real estate and other ventures there.
 In Jan. 1861 he crossed the Plains to Denver, Colo., and opened a foundry and machine shop in partnership with Joseph Marshall. This business was moved to Black Hawk, Colo. in 1863. A water powered blast furnace was built at Marshall, Co., and iron ore was smelted there. This was the first iron-making venture in the West. Later Augustine removed to Denver, Colo., and was in the coal-mining business. He died suddenly Dec. 22, 1885, and his widow with 3 sons removed to
 St. Paul, Minn.

VOLUME II.

CHLOE SWEETING 1794-1888

OF WESTMORELAND AND LITICA, N.Y. AND ST. PAUL, MINN.

The new matter in this Volume is as follows:

BANCS carried back into England.

BILLING very greatly extended into England, adding families of GIFFARD, MORTEYN, BOCLAND, GOBION and others.

COBB carried back to Henry Cobb of Scituate.

DRAKE much added to. This is a long line originating in Devonshire, England.

There are many allied families not shown: BONVILE, FORTESCUE, GILBERT, BOHUN, COURTENAY, MOORE, CHAMPERNOWNE, etc. all of England.

TRACY allied to Merrick.

Due in large part to the researches of Mrs. Charles L. Alden, genealogist, (my 1st cousin Mary Langford Taylor) the American part at least of CHLOE SWEETING'S ancestry has been found in large part. The following are known:

Her two parents.

Her four grand¹parents.

Her eight grand²parents.

Her sixteen grand³parents.

Twenty-five of her thirty-two grand⁴parents.

Thirty-five of her sixty-four grand⁵parents.

Thirty-two of her one hundred and twenty-eight grand⁶parents.

The above are all of New England, Massachusetts families.

In my attempts to proceed further, I have been unsuccessful in securing the following identifications:

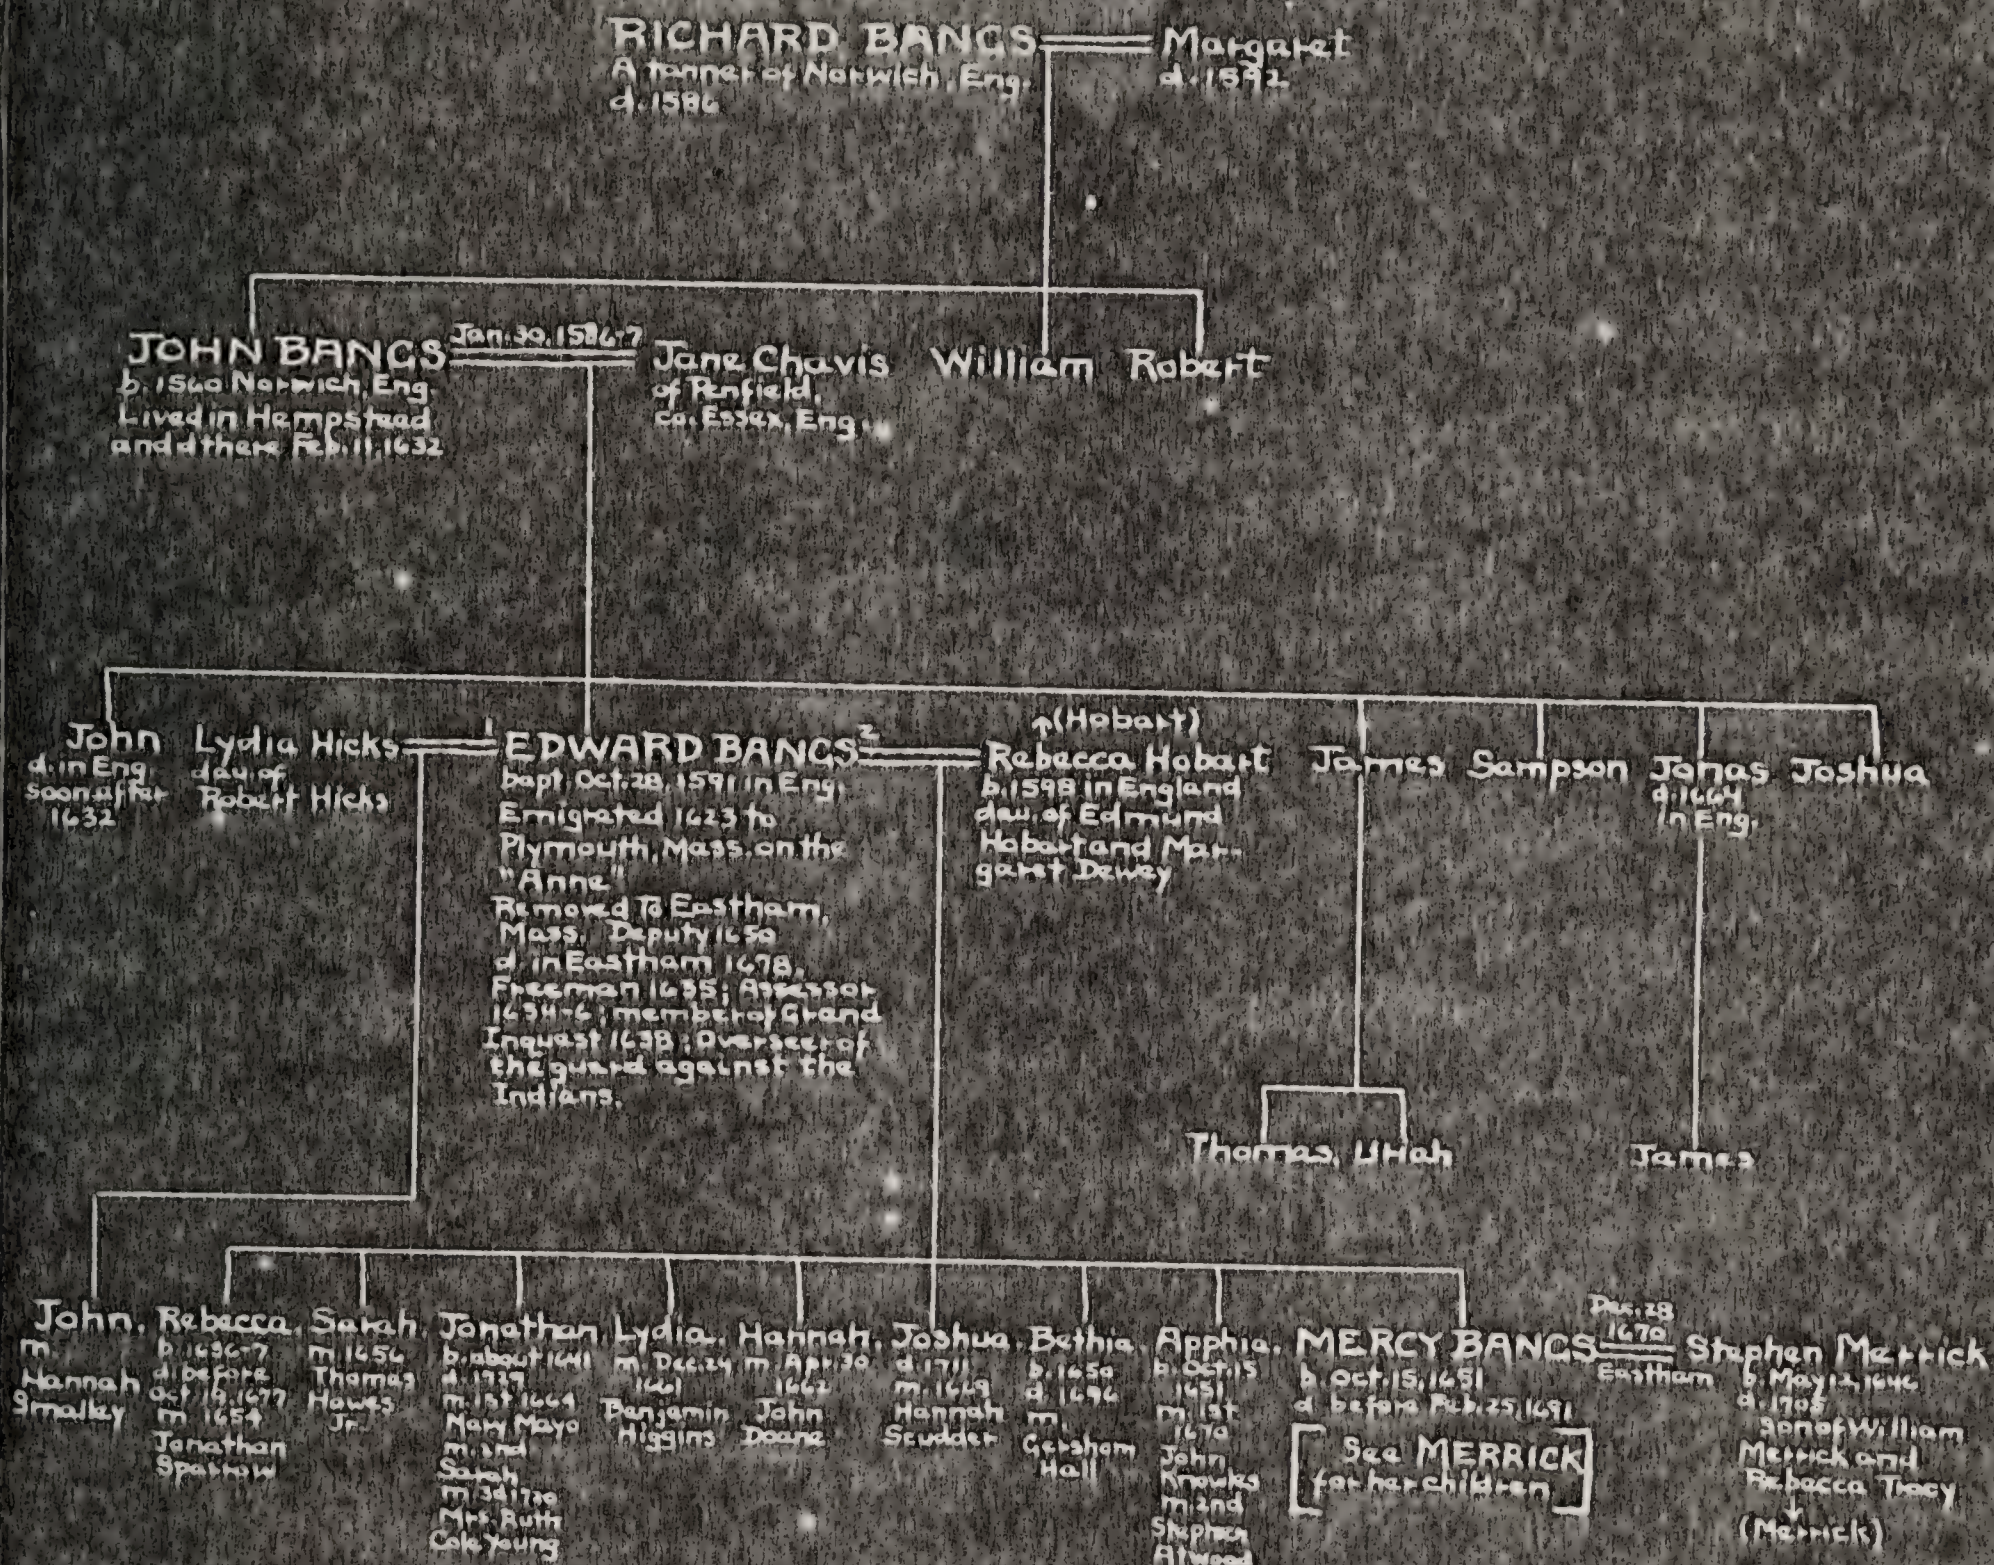

1. Katherine — d. 1680, wife of GREGORY BELCHER of Braintree bapt. 1606, d. 1674.
2. Mary — d. 1718, wife of WM. BILLING of Stonington, Conn., m. May 12, 1657 in Dorchester, d. 1713.
3. —, 2nd wife of AUSTEN COBB of Taunton, Mass. d. about 1691; also the parents of AUSTEN.

The Drake family, of Anglo-Saxon origin, was established in Devonshire, England before the Norman Conquest in 1066. Mount Drake, their original home, is in the Manor of Musbury, Axminster, Devonshire. Once a British stronghold, it was later the site of a Roman camp. Ashe, about 13 1/4 miles south of Axminster, came to John Drake I 1413 or thereabouts, by his marriage with Dorothy Billet. She was heiress of successive heirs and heiresses of the Hampton and Orway and Esse or Ashe families. The Drakes held Ashe for nearly 400 years.

DANIEL ALEXANDER ROBERTSON 1812-1895.

OF PHILADELPHIA PA.; NEW YORK CITY; OHIO; ST. PAUL, MINN.

In his lifetime, Daniel Alexander Robertson's ancestry was little known, even to his wife and children. But after his death, various revealing letters came to light. Some of these letters were written in 1814 by William (Daniel's father) to Alexander (William's father) in Bruch Riach, northern Perthshire, Scotland. Other letters came from relatives in Canada; descendants of another Alexander (William's brother).

In 1924 Victor Robertson (Daniel's son) went to Scotland and found records of Alexander of Bruch Riach (William's father); birth, marriage and children.

To all this is added much correspondence carried on by myself, with the object of determining the ancestry of Alexander Robertson of Bruch Riach b. 1736. From this I find that Alexander b. 1736 was of the Drumachune branch descended from Duncan Mor, 3d son of Robert Robertson, 10th Laird or Chief of the Robertsons of Struan (Strowan), the main line. The Robertsons as a whole are known as the Clan Donnachaidh or Clan Duncan, the name of their first chief.

Lillas Mackintosh was the maiden name of Daniel Alexander Robertson's mother. From letters written by her, we learn that she had four sisters, and that one of them married a MacRae.

A letter written 1814 by William Robertson (husband) disclosed that the father of Lillas was a minister named Daniel (or Donald).

The most revealing of the old correspondence consists of two letters written to Daniel Alexander in 1876 by Alex. M. MacRae, a young lawyer recently come to New York City from Tatnall Co. Georgia. In his first letter, MacRae addressed Daniel as a probable cousin, son of his grandaunt Lillias. Presumably in his response, Daniel confessed ignorance of his mother's family; hence McRae's second letter. Having satisfied himself that Lillias actually was his grandaunt, MacRae then explained that Lillias was descended from a chief of the Mackenzie Clan of Gruinard, Ross-shire, Scotland.

This is the critical point in our genealogy. The father of Lillias is the key stone. It remained for me to correctly establish his identity in Scotland. I knew that he was a minister and named Daniel; also that he had five daughters (no sons mentioned) and that one of the daughters (name unknown) had married a McRae leaving a grandson Alexander M. McRae.

In "History of the Mackenzies" by Alex. Mackenzie 1898 is a genealogical account of the Mackenzie Clan of Gruinard. William Mackenzie, 4th chief of Gruinard mar. Lillias Mackenzie of Lochend and had, among other children, a daughter Catherine who married the Rev. Daniel Mackintosh, minister at Gairloch, Ross-shire. They had five daughters, one of whom, Annabella (the only one named) married Murdo McRae with issue.

In the charts, Highland clan chiefs' names are preceded by Roman numerals.

The early generations of some of the family lines are traditional, and it is almost impossible to prove or disprove them because of the lack of positive documentary evidence.

MACKENZIE CLAN OF KINTAIL

Kintail is the main clan of the Mackenzies. The name is from the town of Kintail, extreme S.W. part of Co. Ross near coast.

It has been said that the Mackenzies were of Irish origin with the Fitzgeralds. But the clan history claims descent with the O'Beolan Earls of Ross, from Gilleoin of the Aird, as follows:

Gilleoin¹, Christan², Kenneth³, Murdoch⁴,
Duncan⁵, Murdoch⁶, Gilleoin⁷, Gilleoin⁸, Kenneth⁹,

ALEXANDER ROBERTSON

OF BRUCH RIACH 1736-1820.

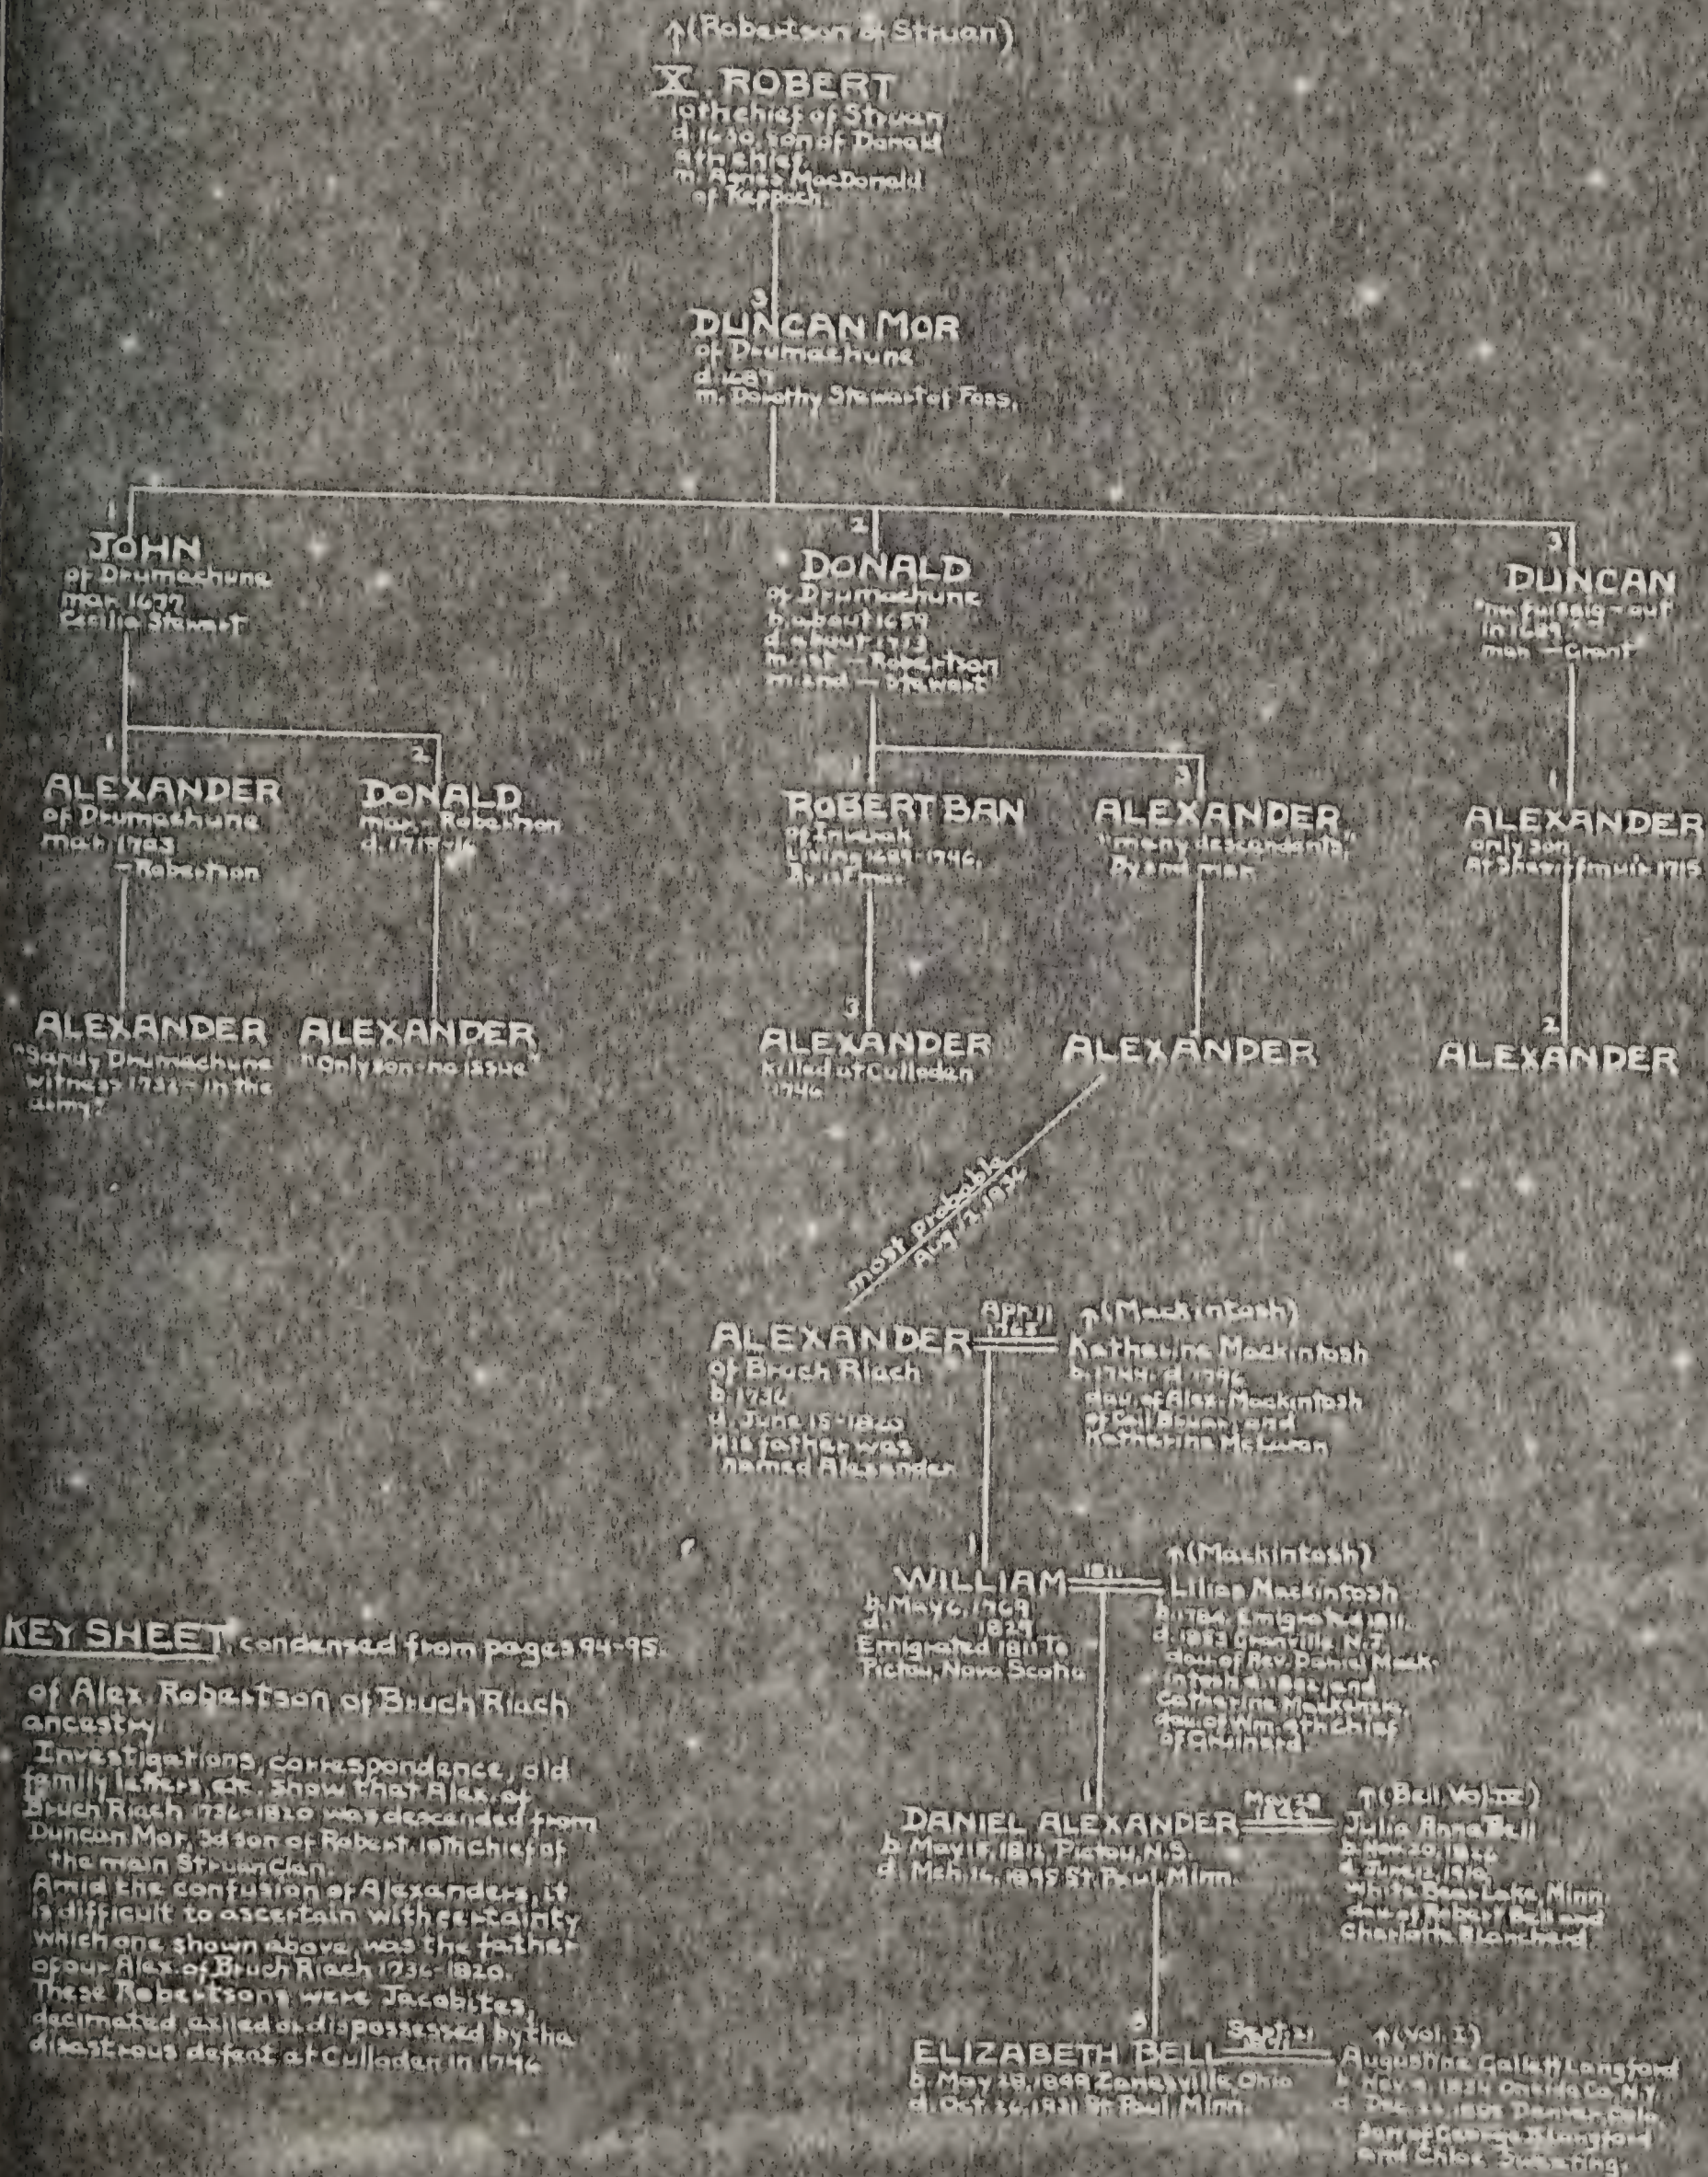

[The following text is extremely faint and largely illegible due to the quality of the scan. It appears to be a series of paragraphs or a list, but the specific content cannot be accurately transcribed.]

ROBERTSON

KEY SHEET, condensed from pages 94-95.

of Alex. Robertson of Bruch Riach ancestry.

Investigations, correspondence, old family letters, etc. show that Alex. of Bruch Riach 1736-1820 was descended from Duncan Mor, 3d son of Robert, 1st chief of the main Struan Clan.

Amid the confusion of Alexanders, it is difficult to ascertain with certainty which one shown above, was the father of our Alex. of Bruch Riach 1736-1820.
These Robertsons were Jacobites, decimated, exiled or dispossessed by the disastrous defeat at Culloden in 1746.

GENERAL INDEX

VOLS. I-IV.

The names are all of families or of persons.

The names in capitals denote charted families. Individuals on a chart, bearing the family name are not indexed. Their names are all on that chart.

Names of wives referred to other charts are not indexed.

Names of wives not referred to other charts are indexed.

Names of 2nd and third wives or husbands are indexed unless referred to other charts.

The charts show the names of families resulting from the marriages of sisters or daughters bearing the chart name. Such names are not in this line of ancestry and are not indexed excepting in a few cases of the main families from which our various ancestral lines originate. The indexing of family names not in our ancestry is therefore restricted to:
